

Emma Harrison

Birthday ...

13th of July. Always winter school holidays so I could never have a pool party!

My favourite Big Steps Little Feet concert is...

2017 Alice in Wonderland for sure! I loved the story when I was little and even did it as a concert when I was about 8. Was so fun recreating this weird, wacky world with some excellent characters and music.

When a child attends my class I hope they...

Have fun! But also that a seed is planted somewhere in their hearts that empowers them to live and learn creatively and bravely.

The most rewarding thing about working with children is...

Their honesty and their passion.

Every year, I always...

Complain about the heat all Summer and then complain about the cold all Winter.

My tertiary/teaching qualifications are...

I have my Bachelor of Arts Dance with Honours from the Western Australian Academy of Performing Arts and a graduate diploma in Media Arts and Production from UTS.

Years of teaching experience.....

6 years; I have been teaching since 2013.

Everything changed when i realied...

Time you enjoyed wasting was not wasted.

As a child I was...

Creative and loud and ambitious and a bossy older sister. In preschool I wrote a manifesto to the class stating how we should all learn and play together. As I child we moved house 18 times to 5 different cities around Australia, so I was very quick to make friends and very generous with my love and energy.

The best advice I ever received was...

Live in action, not reaction.

My favourite place in the world is...

Florence Italy - the Art (and the gelato) is incredible!

My favourite style of dance is...

Contemporary!

Because?

It allows a freedom of expression and passion. It processes everything going on with your emotions and your imagination and your thoughts and manifests out into your body .

The person I most admire is...

My mum, my incredible friends and Kate Bush.

At the moment, I'm reading...

The Museum of Modern Love by Heather Rose

I recommend that everyone should...

Take more holidays, visit your family more often.

Something I can't do, but I wish I could is...

Parkour.

Five minutes ago I was...

Doing some yoga in my lounge room.

Five minutes from now I will be...

Roasting veggies for my dinner.

Five years from now I want to be...

Living and breathing all things creative and fulfilling.
